2 Investment change instructions

Complete this section if you would like to initiate the following investment changes to your NextGen 529 Account.

What type(s) of investment changes do you want to make to your NextGen 529 Account?

- ☐ Exchange your current NextGen 529 Account assets (Continue to Step 2A)*
- ☐ Update how your future NextGen 529 contributions are allocated (Continue to Step 2B)

Instructions for multiple NextGen 529 Accounts for the same Designated Beneficiary must be submitted at the same time in order for the instruction to count as only one investment change. If instructions for the same Designated Beneficiary are received and processed at separate times in the same calendar year, the subsequent instruction will count as the second investment change permitted per calendar year.

For a full list of all the portfolio options please visit NextGenforME.com, or read the NextGen 529 Client Connect Series Program Description and Participation Agreement for important information about the investment options before making a decision.

*Current assets may be exchanged twice per calendar year or upon a change of the Designated Beneficiary. Each portfolio has its own fee and expense structure. The new portfolio you are choosing to invest in may not bear the same fee and expense structure of the portfolio you are currently invested in. Please refer to the NextGen 529 Client Connect Series Program Description and Participation Agreement for more detailed information on fees and expenses for specific portfolios. Please note that Units of the Principal Plus Portfolio may not be exchanged for Units of the NextGen Savings Portfolio.

Investment instructions for future contributions may be changed at any time.
